Illinois Social Host Law

235 ILCS 5/6-16(c)

You (the party host/property owner or renter) can be arrested on criminal charges if you allow or permit individuals under the age of 21 to drink alcohol at your residence or on your property even if you didn't directly supply or provide the underage person with alcohol.

Violators:

- Can be arrested and charged with a Class A Misdemeanor
- Face fines of AT LEAST $500.00
- Can be charged with a Class 4 Felony if the violation directly or indirectly results in great bodily harm or death to any person. Under Illinois law, penalties for a Class 4 Felony may include:
 - Incarceration for 1-3 years
 - Fines of up to $25,000

“Safe Harbor” Provisions

You will be protected from criminal prosecution if you request assistance from police to:

- Remove any person who refuses to stop drinking at the party host's request, or
- Terminate the gathering because you weren't able to prevent the underage drinking after taking all reasonable steps to do so, AND you contact police for help before someone makes a formal complaint to law enforcement
